	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	On an annual basis, the BRI Treasurer (or another officer) researches comparable positions within the non-profit sector in Virginia and the local area of DC, using 990 published data. An independent consultant is also used to provide a market study report to gauge where the median salary is for the market in the Virginia and local DC area. In addition, one of the Directors is assigned to conduct a performance review soliciting information from employees, directors and officers. Once all information is gathered, a report on the comparability and performance data is provided to the Board of Directors for their review. The Board then meets to review and discuss all report data, and determines the proper compensation amounts for the year.
